

More recyclables than residual waste

(Household waste in Germany)

59 per cent of the German domestic waste are recyclables which could be saved from incineration through recycling.

Source: Statistisches Bundesamt [German Federal Statistical Office], 2020